CODE OF CONDUCT AND POLICIES 14

1. INTRODUCTION

MassMutual Global Business Services India LLP (“MassMutual GBSI”) believes that each employee contributes directly to our growth and success and we hope that your experience here will be challenging, enjoyable and rewarding.

Scope and Purpose of the Handbook.

- 1.1 This employee handbook is comprised of this document, the Code of Conduct and company policies, which are expressly incorporated. To the extent any provisions of the handbook, inclusive of the Code of Conduct and policies, are inconsistent with the laws of India or inapplicable to the MassMutual GBSI worksite, those provisions will be disregarded.
- 1.2 Employees are expected to read this handbook, inclusive of the Code of Conduct and policies, carefully and comply with it. This handbook does not aim to vary and/or override any terms and conditions as set out in the contract of employment that the MassMutual GBSI has with its employees. In case of any inconsistency between the terms of the contract of employment and this handbook, the terms of the contract of employee’s employment with MassMutual GBSI shall prevail.
- 1.3 MassMutual GBSI is always interested in employees' views and appreciates any feedback or comments that employees may wish to provide in relation to this handbook.
- 1.4 Nothing in this employee handbook or in any other document provided to the employee during the course of their employment creates or is intended to create a promise or representation of continued employment for any employee.
- 1.5 The laws of the state or territory in which you are employed shall supersede any policy in this handbook should a clause(s) fall short of the requirement under the applicable relevant law.
- 1.6 Should an employee have any enquiries on this handbook, the Code of Conduct, or other policies of MassMutual GBSI, he/she may raise them to the Human Resources Department. Links to the Code of Conduct and policies referenced are in Annexure – 1.

DISCLAIMER

It is important to note that no employee handbook can foresee all regulations and conventions of MassMutual GBSI or all situations and issues. MassMutual GBSI reserves the right to add, delete or modify any aspect of this handbook at any point in time. Where such changes are made, MassMutual GBSI will publish the revised handbook and make it available to all employees.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The information contained in this handbook is considered as confidential information of MassMutual GBSI, which should not be disclosed to any third party without obtaining prior approval from MassMutual GBSI in writing. Any duplication of the material contained herein would be construed as an infringement.

2. SCOPE

This handbook shall apply to all employees of MassMutual GBSI working in India, as well as an employee of an affiliate assigned to work in India. It is intended to provide employees with important information regarding MassMutual GBSI, its internal policies, procedures and benefit programs. It also aims to clarify expectations regarding employee conduct and performance.

3. COMPLIANCE WITH BUSINESS ETHICS AND VALUES

The Code of Conduct establishes the expectations and principles for our behavior. The Code of Conduct describes various resources available to employees, like company policies, to help guide us when a decision is not clear or easy. Compliance with the Employee handbook, Code of Conduct and company policies is a condition of employment. MassMutual GBSI is committed to following ethical business practices and endorses values that include, but are not limited to, maintaining a workplace which is respectful, free from any kind of harassment and conducting our activities ethically and compliant with applicable laws.

3.1 Context

All employees of MassMutual GBSI are mandatorily required to go through the employee handbook, the Code of Conduct, and all policies which details the manner in which each employee is required to render her/his job responsibilities and expected conduct at workplace.

3.2 Prevention of Discrimination and Harassment

MassMutual GBSI is committed to providing a work environment free of unlawful harassment. MassMutual GBSI prohibits sexual harassment and harassment based on pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, race, religion, color, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, marital status, age, sex, or sexual orientation. For more details, employees must refer to the Code of Conduct, Policy on Prevention and Redressal of Harassment at MassMutual GBSI and Policy on Prevention and Redressal of Sexual harassment of Women at MassMutual GBSI.

3.3 Preventing Corruption

As a global company, apart from the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 (India), MassMutual GBSI is subject to all relevant anti-corruption laws. These prohibit bribery of government officials and commercial partners. MassMutual GBSI employees are prohibited from offering, directly or indirectly, any form of gift, entertainment or anything of value to any government official or commercial partners including customers or their representatives to:

- Obtain or retain business;
- Influence business decisions; or
- Secure an unfair advantage (this includes bribes, kickbacks and facilitation payments)

See the Code of Conduct and the Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption and the Business Gifts and Entertainment policies for additional provisions.

3.4 Gifts and Corruption

MassMutual GBSI restricts giving and receiving gifts and entertainment between employees and business partners. See the Code of Conduct and the Business Gifts and Entertainment policy for additional provisions.

3.5 Conflict of Interest

When the interests or benefits of an employee conflicts with the interests or benefits of the MassMutual GBSI, a conflict of interest is said to occur. Employees are expected to avoid situations involving actual or potential conflict of interest. See the Code of Conduct and Conflicts of Interest policy for additional provisions.

3.5.1 Outside Employment

If employees take part in any activity that enhances or supports a competitor's position or accepts simultaneous employment with any other company or business entity, it is considered outside employment and a conflict of interest. See the Code of Conduct and Conflicts of Interest policy for additional provisions.

3.5.2 Working with Family & Friends

MassMutual GBSI prohibits employment of certain family members, as well as romantic relationships among employees in reporting or oversight positions. See the Code of Conduct and Conflicts of Interest and Anti-Nepotism policy for additional provisions. Employees must contact their manager and the Human Resources Department if they have any questions about this. An employee must disclose a sexual, familial or other significant relationship with another employee that could potentially create a real or perceived conflict of interest. The Human Resources Department is responsible for determining whether there is an impermissible relationship or reporting chain.

4. EMPLOYMENT RELATED INFORMATION

4.1 Probation and Confirmation

All employees are required to undergo a period of probation, unless expressly waived in their offer of employment. While the normal probationary period is six [6] months, this may be extended as detailed in Policy on Confirmation and Probation at MassMutual GBSI – India.

Upon successful completion of the probation period and meeting all the prerequisites for confirmation as noted in the Policy on Confirmation and Probation at MassMutual GBSI – India, an employee will receive an official communication notifying the employment confirmation.

Employees who are not confirmed at the conclusion of the probation period may be terminated as detailed in the Policy on Confirmation and Probation at MassMutual GBSI – India.

4.2 Employee Information

It is imperative for all employees to furnish full particulars and all documents required by MassMutual GBSI prior to or at the time of joining, as applicable. See the Policy on Hiring at MassMutual GBSI – India for more information.

In case of any changes to personal information, employees should ensure that the same is updated to the Human Resources Department, especially relating to the following but not limited to address change, contact numbers, additional qualifications acquired, marital status (for benefit enrolment), passport details, name change, change in contact number or address, children data (for benefit enrolment), and information about disability status.

5. EXPECTED EMPLOYEE CONDUCT

5.1 Job Duties

An employee's manager will explain the job responsibilities and the performance standards expected of each employee. It is important to note that the said job responsibilities may change at any time during the employment as per the business requirements. Further, from time to time, the employee may be asked to work on special projects, or to assist with other work necessary or important to the operation of her/his department or MassMutual GBSI. Employee's cooperation and assistance in performing such additional work is required.

Please see the Policy on Working Hours at MassMutual GBSI – India and the Policy on Employee Discipline and Misconduct at MassMutual GBSI – India and the Confidential Information Policy for more information.

5.2 Work Schedules

5.2.1 MassMutual GBSI is normally open for business between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. with rest hours, Monday through Friday. Some departments may vary work schedules to provide greater coverage and support to MassMutual GBSI-wide needs.

5.2.2 Please refer to the Policy on Working Hours at MassMutual GBSI-India for more information.

5.2.3 Employees who are working outside the MassMutual GBSI premises are required to record their work hours in the applicable MassMutual GBSI system. This information may be required by MassMutual GBSI from time to time including for productivity analysis and workflow analysis.

5.3 Dress Code

As a representative of MassMutual GBSI, employees must pay attention to personal grooming at the workplace. Employees are expected to dress appropriately for the workplace.

5.4 Submission of Work Assignment Reports

Employees are required to record their work assignments and report it to their supervisors/manager on a weekly basis or such frequency as may be decided by MassMutual GBSI. Every employee is required to accurately record the details of work done, including the time for travel.

5.5 Access Cards

Each employee is given a unique employee number and a smart card. Every employee must wear her/his smart card conspicuously on entering and leaving the facility and at all times while on MassMutual GBSI premises. Employees are required to swipe their smart card on entering and leaving the premises.

It is also important that employees carry their smart card with them at times of travel to and from the various MassMutual GBSI offices as well as at client sites. In case of loss of smart card, the employee should inform Facilities immediately. In the event of the employee leaving MassMutual GBSI, the smart card must be returned to the Facilities Department not later than the last working day.

5.6 Punctuality and Attendance

Employees of MassMutual GBSI are expected to be punctual and regular in attendance. Any tardiness or absence causes problems for fellow employees and the supervisor. Employees are expected to report to work as scheduled and on time. Employees also are expected to remain at work for their entire work schedule, except for meal periods or when required to leave on authorized MassMutual GBSI business. Late arrival, early departure, or other unanticipated and unapproved absences from scheduled hours are disruptive and must be avoided.

If an employee is unable to report for work on any particular day, or if s/he is going to be more than 15 minutes late s/he must under all but the most extenuating circumstances call his/her supervisor to explain the delay at or before the time s/he is scheduled to begin working for that day. Excessive absenteeism or tardiness, whether excused or not, will not be tolerated.

If an employee fails to report for work without any notification to his/her supervisor, MassMutual GBSI may initiate appropriate disciplinary action as per this handbook and any applicable policy or rules and regulations of MassMutual GBSI. Please see the Policy on Working Hours at MassMutual GBSI – India and the Policy on Employee Discipline and Misconduct at MassMutual GBSI – India for more information.

5.6 Policy on Remote Working

Employees are required to meet all the assigned job responsibilities, while in compliance with the applicable policies of the Company. Employees are allowed remote working / work from home provided,

1. Their respective jobs are suitable to be performed remotely
2. Personal one-off remote working is needed
3. Reasonable business reasons that require flexibility
4. Socio economic situations or natural calamities which impairs public transportation to and from the employee's office location (e.g., strike, floods, etc.)
5. There are no concerns from the employee's direct manager and/or functional manager that the employee's quality of work and deliverables will not be impacted by working remotely
6. The employee has all the equipment and infrastructure necessary to perform his/her job remotely
7. Working remotely will not result in additional cost to the Company (electricity, internet, etc.) and should not cause security concerns to the Company or the Company's systems, including, but not limited to, data integrity and confidentiality
8. The employee is fully dedicated to their regular working duties and does not have any other commitments at that time, which would conflict with the requirements of their work in accordance with the employee's terms and conditions of employment and the Company's policies including the Code of Conduct.

6. KEY MassMutual GBSI PROCESSES

6.1 Payment of Salaries

Employees are expected to receive their monthly salary on the last working day of the month and can view their salary details online.

Each employee will be given a statement of pay. This statement of pay will detail the statutory deductions as well as deductions for any loans taken or outstanding payable by the employee to MassMutual GBSI/ court ordered deductions / income tax deductions (wherever applicable).

6.2 Promotion and Progression

Promotions and progressions are purely based on performance and role maturity and are at the sole discretion of MassMutual GBSI. Guidelines for promotions, progressions (if applicable) and any other role change are maintained by the Human Resources Department for the respective role change cycle.

6.3 Performance Review and Development

A High-Performance Work Culture is the backbone of MassMutual GBSI's Talent management strategy. Accordingly, our performance management system is a development tool geared to identify, nurture and invest in our star performers to become the future leaders.

Performance assessment is based on review against the defined goals of employees during the applicable period of assessment, by the appraiser. If an employee's performance is not up to the acceptable standard, the employee is required to participate in a performance improvement plan.

6.4 Employee Transfer/Assignment

MassMutual GBSI may require employees to change their department / place of work / the nature of work whether existing or new. The employee who has been requested to do so by MassMutual GBSI may not decline without due reason.

MassMutual GBSI may deploy an employee to another organization, whether existing or new due to business requirements. An employee who has been requested to do so may not decline the deployment without due reason.

Reassignments, assignments and transfers will be carried out in accordance with the standard internal process of MassMutual GBSI.

6.5 MassMutual GBSI's Property

6.5.1 Desks, computers, laptops, printers, copiers, and other such office equipment, vehicles, cell phones, and other communication devices etc. are the property of MassMutual GBSI and must be maintained according to MassMutual GBSI rules and regulations. MassMutual GBSI reserves the right to inspect all property to ensure compliance with its rules and regulations, without notice to the employee and at any time, not necessarily in the employee's presence.

Employee Handbook

Confidential

Please note that MassMutual GBSI voice mail and/or electronic mail (e-mail) are to be used for business purposes only.

6.5.2 MassMutual GBSI reserves the right to monitor all communications, including voice mail messages and e-mail messages, to ensure compliance with this rule, without notice to the employee and at any time, not necessarily in the employee's presence.

6.5.3 Employees will be periodically required to assign and/or change "passwords" and personal codes for voice mail, e-mail, and computer. These communication technologies and related storage media must be kept clean and are to be used only for work-related purposes. MassMutual GBSI reserves the right to inspect them.

6.5.4 Storage media and databases are to be used only for MassMutual GBSI's business and are the property of MassMutual GBSI.

6.5.5 MassMutual GBSI reserves the right to keep a record of all passwords and codes used and/or may be able to override any such password system. Prior authorization must be obtained before any MassMutual GBSI property may be removed from the premises. For security reasons, employees should not leave personal belongings of value in the workplace.

6.5.6 Employees leaving MassMutual GBSI premises are required to remove all personal items before leaving MassMutual GBSI premises. MassMutual GBSI shall not be responsible for any loss or damage of employee's personal items.

6.5.7 For more details, please read Policy on Information Security at MassMutual GBSI – India. See the Code of Conduct, the Data Privacy at MassMutual GBSI – India, the Confidential Information Policy, the Information Governance and Records Management, Technology Acceptable Use and the Telephones, Photographs and Recording Devices Policy.

6.6. Information Security

At MassMutual GBSI, all information used in the course of business is considered a valuable corporate asset and is subject to policy and procedures to keep it secure. As an employee, you have the responsibility to secure and protect business information, regardless of its form or content. It is your responsibility to understand and comply with all MassMutual GBSI policies, procedures, and guidelines designed to protect business information from improper use, disclosure, loss, or destruction. Failure to safeguard MassMutual GBSI business information may result in disciplinary or appropriate legal action.

It is MassMutual GBSI's policy to clearly identify sensitive or proprietary information and make it available to others only on a "need to know" basis. If you have questions regarding this policy, please contact your manager or Human Resources.

For more details, please read the Policy on Information Security at MassMutual GBSI – India and the Enterprise Information Risk Management Policy.

6.7. Intellectual Property

Every employee needs to abide by the Intellectual property policies of the MassMutual GBSI while handling MassMutual GBSI, clients or any third part intellectual property.

Please refer to the See the Code of Conduct and Policy on Information Security at MassMutual GBSI – India and the Intellectual Property Policy for additional provisions.

6.8. Use of Personal Computers and Equipment

MassMutual GBSI will only provide support for equipment and software provided by MassMutual GBSI. MassMutual GBSI does not allow personal machines to be used or connected to MassMutual GBSI's network. Employees are responsible for timely back up of work related data in MassMutual GBSI provided network storage. Employees have to comply with the Policy on Information Security at MassMutual GBSI – India before downloading any open source software on MassMutual GBSI infrastructure.

6.9. Parking

Employees may park their vehicles in designated areas, if space permits. If space is unavailable, employees must park in permissible public areas in the vicinity of MassMutual GBSI property. Employees may not use parking areas specifically designated for customers, vendors, MassMutual GBSI vehicles, or reserved for managers. MassMutual GBSI is not responsible for any loss or damage to employee vehicles or contents while parked on MassMutual GBSI property.

6.10. Security/Workplace/Violence

MassMutual GBSI has developed guidelines to help maintain a secure workplace. Report any suspicious persons or activities to security personnel. Employees should secure their desk or office at the end of the day. When called away from work area for an extended length of time, employees should not leave valuable and/or personal articles in or around their workstation that may be accessible. The security of facilities as well as the welfare of our employees depends upon the alertness and sensitivity of every individual to potential security risks. Employees should immediately notify their supervisor when unknown persons are acting in a suspicious manner in or around the facilities, or when keys, security passes, or identification badges are missing.

See the Code of Conduct and Policy on Safety (General, Occupational & Health) at MassMutual GBSI – India for additional provisions.

6. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

7.1 Leaves

As a general rule, employees shall be entitled to a weekly off on Saturday and Sunday. Further, all employees will be granted statutory holidays as may be published by MassMutual GBSI and made available in the leave calendar at the beginning of each year. Paid annual leave, sick leave, maternity leave, paternity leave and any other applicable leave shall be as provided for in Policy on Leaves at MassMutual GBSI - India.

7.2 Health Insurance

Employees are eligible for health insurance coverage for self and immediate family members (spouse and children) as per the applicable policy. Employee's parents or parents in-law and dependent siblings may be covered in the retail health insurance policy if available in the policy year.

For more details, please refer to insurance policies available online.

7.3 Life Insurance

In the unfortunate event of the loss of life of an employee, MassMutual GBSI provides a life insurance cover.

For more details, please refer to insurance policies available online.

7.4 Gratuity

Employees are eligible for gratuity payment upon completion of five (5) years of continuous service in MassMutual GBSI. Gratuity will be calculated based on 15 days of salary (i.e. last drawn Basic salary while in India) for every completed year of service. Employees can reach out to the Human Resources Department for any clarifications.

7. EMPLOYEE DISCIPLINE AND CONDUCT

8.1. Misconduct

Any behavior that is not in accordance with MassMutual GBSI's value systems - the Winning Ways - and the Code of Conduct constitutes 'Misconduct' and is regarded as a fundamental breach of an employee's employment contract. Workplace behavior that may constitute misconduct includes behaviors discussed in the Code of Conduct and listed in the Policy on Employee Discipline and Conduct at MassMutual GBSI - India (the list is not exhaustive and may undergo amendment from time to time).

8.2. Punishment for Misconduct

The punishments for misconduct may be one or a combination of two or more actions addressed in the Policy on Employee Discipline and Conduct at MassMutual GBSI – India. Such policy also contains information and procedures regarding an employee's ability to respond to certain allegations of misconduct and the payment of subsistence allowance.

8. EMPLOYEE SEPARATION

MassMutual GBSI understands that an employee may see fit to separate from MassMutual GBSI for various reasons.

9.1 It is required that an employee provides the requisite written notice of resignation in advance, as stated in his / her employment agreement.

9.2 The notice should be given in writing and the date on which the employee makes the separation request would be considered as the official date of notice.

9.3 Please refer to Policy on Separation of Employment at MassMutual GBSI – India for more details regarding the resignation procedure and related requirements.

9.4. Employees should contact their immediate supervisor and/or the Human Resources

Department if they have any questions.

9. HEALTH AND SAFETY

All employees are responsible for their own safety, as well as that of others in the workplace. To help us maintain a safe workplace, everyone must be safety conscious at all times. If any employee notices faulty equipment, s/he is required to inform the concerned department. Report all work-related injuries or illnesses immediately to your supervisor or to the Human Resource Department. If you have a health and safety issue or question, we invite you to bring it to the attention of the Human Resource Department so that we can assess what, if anything needs to be done to address this matter.

There is a first aid kit located at MassMutual GBSI offices for use in case of minor injury. MassMutual GBSI will take steps to ensure that the kit is fully replenished at all times.

Please refer to the Policy on Safety (General, Occupational & Health) at MassMutual GBSI – India for details.

10. CODE OF CONDUCT & SPEAKING UP

We encourage employees to raise concerns and speak up if they become aware of policy violation or behavior inappropriate for the workplace. Please refer to the Code of Conduct and MassMutual's Speaking Up Policy for information on speaking up.

11. EFFECTIVE DATE

This employee handbook will be effective from 01 March 2020.
